

VALUATION HALLERTAU 2018

The official valuation of the hop harvest in the growing region of Hallertau were made on 22./23. August 2018.

From a total acreage of 16.780 ha, 699 ha of it are jung area, a yield of 690.000 Ztr (34.500 t)

was estimated.

Due to good weather conditions from end of July and during August with sufficient rainfall and not to high temperatures an average crop is expected.

In this result the damages due to hail and withering are considered already

The stocks are very healthy and a good quality is to be expected. At the moment no well-founded statements about the Alpha values can be!